Tip and Tucker (I Am A Reader)

SLEEPING BEAR PRESS

Say hello to Tip and Tucker! These hamsters are best friends and like to stick together. But while little Tip is sometimes nervous about new situations, Tucker likes to explore and see new things. Everything changes when Mr. Lopez purchases them from the pet store and takes them to his classroom. In Paw Painters, the students in Mr. Lopez's class are doing art projects, and Tip and Tucker don't want to be left out of the fun. But hamsters + paint = a big mess! In this new reader series, Tip and Tucker will help beginning readers explore new feelings and learn to navigate classroom dynamics and relationships.

[Hey Jude] "An emotionally layered book with accurate insight into mental illness, ideal for reluctant readers."—Starred Review, Kirkus Reviews

Connected Lives: Music

SADDLEBACK EDUCATIONAL PUBLISHING

Connected Lives, a contemporary nonfiction series for teens, features the fascinating life stories of popular artists. Each book presents two singers in a similar musical genre who have lived extraordinary lives, exploring how their lives interconnect and how they are different. As similar as these artists may seem, their rise to fame may have been very different. Multiple musical genres are represented across the series, including pop, hip-hop, jazz, and country.

Tween Emergent Reader Libraries will motivate struggling readers to pick up a book, start reading, and keep reading. But this new series features topics and genres particularly of interest to upper elementary and middle school students. Planned as a three-box set, with books written at emergent and beginning reader levels, this unique new collection contains the books you have been searching for: high-interest fiction and non-fiction selections in sets that include both literary genres and content-specific themes. GO! Excel, includes 64-page books written at true emergent levels with colour photographs on every page to support comprehension and engage struggling readers. Two additional sets, Engage and Excel, will feature slightly higher reading levels and word counts to allow students to progress in reading step by step.

GO! SEL Social Emotional Stories (1 each of 24 titles)

Build students' social and emotional learning skills with these engaging 48-page fiction books. Each pair focuses on an important SEL topic from a relatable tween perspective. One book in each pair showcases a middle school student successfully applying the skill. The other book features a main character who struggles with the skill and has to deal with the fallout. When read together, the pairs provide students with a basis for discussion about the topic and how it can affect their day-to-day life. These books are original stories featuring tweens and are most appropriate for upper elementary and middle school classrooms.
