

Summary of Wiley Agreements with Funders and Institutions

Wiley has several agreements in place with funders and institutions so that researchers can comply with open access policies when submitting and publishing in ACSESS journals. Article publication charges may be covered in full or in part for authors affiliated with these funders and institutions. Authors can check whether they are based at a participating institution or if their funder has an Open Access Account with Wiley at wileyauthors.com

---

Germany: Projekt DEAL

- The agreement between more than 700 Projekt DEAL institutions and Wiley is part of a nationally coordinated strategy to enable a large-scale transition to open access.
- Provides researchers at the institutions access to subscription content and authors with the ability to publish primary research and review articles open access in subscriptions journals at no cost.

---

Norway: UNIT

- An agreement between the Norwegian Directorate for ICT and Joint Services in Higher Education (33 institutions) and Research and Wiley.
- Open access publishing at Wiley under this agreement complies with the Norwegian Government's National goals and guidelines for open access to research articles and the European joint initiative OA2020.
- Provides researchers at the institutions with access to subscription content and authors with the ability to publish primary research and review articles open access in subscriptions journals at no cost.

---

Hungary: EISZ

- An agreement between the Library and Information Centre of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences Consortium (13 institutions) and Wiley.
- Provides researchers at the institutions with access to subscription content and authors with the ability to publish primary research and review articles open access in subscriptions journals at no cost.

---

Austria: KEMÖ

- An agreement between the Austrian Academic Library Consortium (24 institutions) and Wiley.
- Provides researchers at the institutions with access to subscription content and qualifying authors with the ability to publish primary research and review articles Open Access in subscription journals at no cost.
- Does not cover Open Access journals which are handled separately for FWF funded authors.

WILEY

---

The Netherlands: VSNU

- Encompasses 15 institutions in the Netherlands.
- Provides researchers with access to subscription content and authors with the ability to publish primary research and review articles Open Access in subscription journals at no cost.

---

Sweden: BIBSAM

- An agreement between Swedish Consortium of University and Research Libraries (45 institutions) and Wiley.
- Provides researchers with access to subscription content and authors with the ability to publish primary research and review articles Open Access in subscription journals at no cost.

---

Finland: FinELib

- An agreement between FinELib a Finnish consortium of higher education and research institutions (22 institutions) and Wiley.
- Provides researchers with access to subscription content and authors with the ability to publish primary research and review articles Open Access in subscription journals at no cost.

---

United Kingdom: Jisc

- The Jisc consortium (138 institutions) agreement with Wiley, the largest transitional agreement to have been agreed in the UK, initially covers all article types, and provides researchers with access to subscription content.
- The agreement allows for compliance with funder mandates (current and likely future UKRI policy). Jisc and UK funders state it is compliant with Plan S.
- Qualifying authors can publish primary research and review articles Open Access in subscription journals at no cost.

---

Virginia, USA: VIVA

- An agreement between Virginia's academic library consortium (39 state-assisted colleges and universities, 32 of the nonprofit independent institutions, and the Library of Virginia) and Wiley.
- Provides researchers with access to subscription content and authors with the ability to publish primary research and review articles in open access journals at no cost.

---

Ohio, USA: OhioLINK

- An agreement between OhioLINK, a library consortium serving 118 libraries and 89 Ohio colleges and universities, and Wiley.
- Provides authors with the ability to publish primary research and review articles open access in subscription journals no cost.
- Corresponding authors at participating institutions fees for open access publishing will be covered by the OhioLINK Open Access Account.

Please contact journals@sciencesocieties.org with any questions

October 2020

WILEY