

Call for Submissions

Publish your manuscript in one of the American Society for Nutrition journals.

ASN's Board of Directors is fully committed to improving the author publication experience through increased speed, simplified processes, reduced costs, and greater attention to author service. We know you weigh many factors when choosing where to submit your research, whether it is speed, impact factor, or cost. We aim to be your first choice, as well as your best choice.

Author Benefits and Services

Unified Instructions to Authors

The ASN journals' Editors have collaborated to create a single Instructions for Authors, establishing common guidelines across the ASN portfolio. With uniform style requirements, it has never been easier for authors to prepare their manuscripts and transfer between journals.

Hassle-Free Submissions

All first submissions are now hassle-free, with limited requirements for formatting.

Speed of Publication

Oxford University Press is implementing processes to publish research articles at manuscript acceptance, dramatically cutting the time to article publication.

Automatic Deposit of Articles on PubMed

Oxford University Press automatically deposits all articles published in the ASN journals into PubMed. Articles with NIH funding are also automatically deposited into PubMed Central. Authors do not have to take any additional steps to meet their NIH-funding requirements.

3-D Image Capabilities

Beginning in summer 2021, new technology to display 3-D images will enable the publication of 3-D body image and brain scans in manuscripts.

Rigorous Peer Review

Our authors rave about high-quality peer review, thanks to our prestigious Editors, dedicated Editorial Board Members, statistical review board, and expert ad hoc reviewers.

Page Charge and APC Discounts

Page charges and APCs are discounted for ASN members.

Reviewer Benefits and Services

COMING SOON! CME Credit

ASN recently became accredited to provide continuing medical education (CME) for physicians. ASN plans to incentivize reviewers by offering CME for high quality reviews in the near future.

APC Discounts

Current Developments in Nutrition is piloting an initiative to provide APC discounts to reviewers who submit high-quality reviews within 1 week.

Reviewer Recognition

All ASN journal reviewers are recognized for their service in our journal publications on an annual basis. Additionally, twenty top reviewers are awarded annually (five from each journal). Top reviewers are offered a page charge waiver for one article accepted by the respective journal that is submitted within 12 months of receiving the award.
