

2021 REEL CANADA PROGRAMMING

FILM LENDING LIBRARY

Interested in showing Canadian film in your classroom? During the COVID-19 pandemic, REEL CANADA is pleased to move our Lending Library online, providing streaming links to teachers that will be active for 7 days each, so you can still have access to great Canadian films for students of all ages during this time. To request your film links and corresponding lesson plans, please fill out our Lending Library form on our website at: www.reelcanada.ca/lending-library-form/

HIGH SCHOOL & ESL LESSON PLANS

We offer over 500 lesson plans for teachers who are bringing Canadian film into their classroom, or planning their own REEL CANADA film festival. We offer lesson plans with pre- and post-viewing activities, handouts and rubrics, games, quizzes and other fun stuff! Hundreds of film-specific lesson plans in English and French, across a wide variety of subject areas for grades 9 through 12, for all the feature films in our high school catalogue. ESL / ELL lesson plans for several levels of English language proficiency.

All our lesson plans are available to you at ABSOLUTELY NO COST. To request our free resources, email contactus@reelcanada.ca and let us know what films, grade levels or subject areas interest you.

REEL OPPORTUNITIES

The Reel Opportunities programme, presented by REEL CANADA and Bell Media, offers online workshops designed to expose young people to the hundreds of career opportunities in the Canadian film industry — completely free of charge! One-hour workshops will be led by REEL CANADA facilitators who provide an overview of career paths in Canadian film and will feature a working film industry professional speaking about their own experiences in a specific area of interest.

If you would like more information about our remotely-delivered, online workshop for the 2021 school year, please visit our website at: www.reelcanada.ca/reel-opportunities/

NATIONAL CANADIAN FILM DAY

The eighth annual celebration of Canadian film will take place on Wednesday April 21st and we want to encourage everybody to watch a great Canadian film on that day, and connect with us — and each other — online.

NCFD 2021 will be about celebrating our country's magnificent cinematic legacy, as always. But it'll also be about feeling hopeful and inspired. We've all been through a lot together, so this April 21st, let's step into the light (of our TV screens, laptops or home projectors!), and feel connected to our stories, our movies, and each other.

The NCFD Spotlight list will be announced shortly on www.canfilmday.ca, and we know there will be something on it for everyone.

ANTI-RACISM LIVESTREAM

On April 21st, REEL CANADA is offering a compelling new Rctv livestream to discuss inequality and racism in Canada through film. Students will watch films that address Black and Indigenous realities and then log into our interactive livestream for a conversation with the filmmakers, and with their peers across the country.

This Rctv event is suitable for either remote or in-person learning, for grades 9 and above – and is entirely free of charge.

Fill out our online registration the form on our website at www.reelcanada.ca/livestreams/ to book your spot.
