Pro Copy Stand Considerations

The Kaiser Pro wall mount, tall free standing or table based copy stands can handle a wide variety of materials. Critical consideration of existing and future project requirements can be essential to choosing the right components.

Accessibility

- Motorized baseboard with RSP 2motion is ideal for multi height accessibility requirements
  - Column stop allows camera head to be positioned for ideal distance from baseboard

Motor Control and precision

- Precise Column markings for repeatable results
- Motor Control or manual operation

Object requirements

- Is copy board size enough for object size
- Will lighting cover object size
- Is column length tall enough for selected optics

Ergonomics

- Table top or free standing solutions
- Is work surface adjustment required for accessibility

RSP rePRO - The best of German engineering

RSP Dual Arm
Camera head

RSP Dual speed camera control

ESA Compliance tag

Built for Canada,
all metal shell,
fully grounded
power supply.
Take workplace safety seriously!

Made in Germany

Pro multi-function modular copy system

RSP rePRO defines professional grade with exceptional build quality and operating precision.

Worm Gear column design

The core of the the RSP rePRO is the worm gear column design. The worm gear drive is virtually maintenance free providing precise, repeatable results over decades of operation.

Dual speed camera control

Quick movement of the Camera position is combine with a much slower and more precise speed for ideal set-up operation.

Advanced Dual arm camera head

Controlling the position of the camera is essential for a wide range of objects. The RSP rePRO head uses dual arms and can be operated with left or right hand.

Kaiser built Canadian power supply CSA* / ESA** Compliant

Kaiser takes safety very seriously. To comply to enhanced Canadian CSA electrical safety standards and workplace safety requirements, Kaiser designed and now builds power supplies specific to Canada for the RSP rePRO / RD products. Each power supply is marked with an orange ESA safety compliance tag.
