TEAM IN LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

“PEDIATRIC REHABILITATION MEDICINE IS A SUBSPECIALTY OF AN INHERENTLY UNIQUE SPECIALTY, YET RATHER THAN BECOMING A NARROWER SCOPE OF PRACTICE, THE OPPORTUNITIES AND POSSIBILITIES FOR PATIENT CARE ARE ENDLESS. IT IS A JOY AND A PRIVILEGE EACH DAY TO LOOK FOR WAYS TO IMPROVE THE FUNCTION AND QUALITY OF LIFE FOR OUR PATIENTS. WE ARE LOOKING FOR SOMEONE WHO SEES THE POTENTIAL IN EVERY SITUATION AND IS EXCITED TO COLLABORATE FOR THE BETTERMENT OF OUR PATIENTS AND THEIR FAMILIES.”

CAREER OPPORTUNITY FOR PEDIATRIC PHYSICAL MEDICINE AND REHABILITATION PHYSICIAN

NORTON CHILDREN'S PHYSICAL MEDICINE & REHABILITATION, affiliated with the UofL School of Medicine and a part of Norton Children's Medical Group, is seeking a pediatric physical medicine and rehabilitation physician. The practice sees over 400 patients annually, offering specialty care to children with cerebral palsy, traumatic brain injuries, spina bifida, spasticity and many other conditions. The rehabilitation team works closely with families to create unique treatment plans that address the needs of each child, including all aspects of a child's quality-of-life function. These plans and goals are created using current technology, research and rehab techniques in addition to play and age-appropriate activities. Close collaboration with each family ensures that everyone knows what to expect from the treatment plan.

To discuss this opportunity, contact Tracy Shaughnessy, senior recruiter, physicians, Norton Medical Group, at tracy.shaughnessy@nortonhealthcare.org or (502) 609-3672. To learn more about all our opportunities, visit BeANortonDoctor.com.
