

Pain & Addiction: Common Threads

Course XXIV

2023 ASAM Annual Conference | April 13, 2023

2023 Theme

Navigating Pain & Addiction Challenges Across Transitions of Care

Reminders

- ◆ Please put cell phones and other mobile devices in silent mode.
- ◆ Lunch will be an hour from 12:00 pm – 1:00pm. Lunches are available to attendees at no additional cost.
- ◆ Instructions for claiming CME will be provided at the end of the course
- ◆ Need assistance? Ask ASAM Staff at the Information Desk

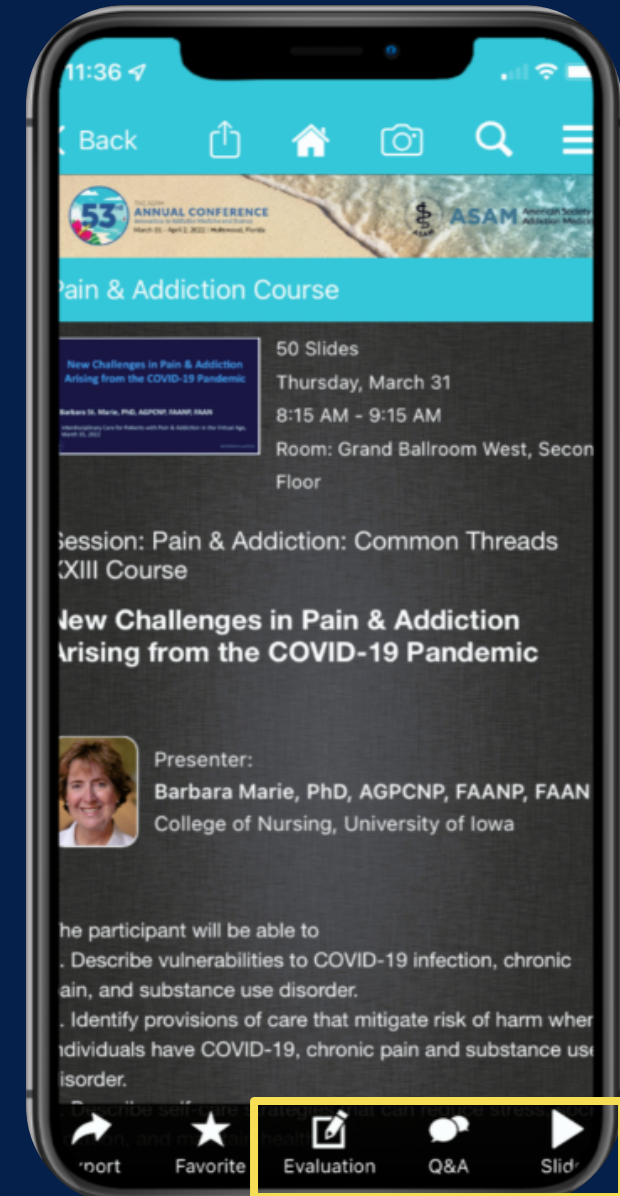

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this educational activity, participants should be able to:

- ◆ Identify and describe the new developments affecting the science, policy, and clinical practice of addiction medicine.
- ◆ Compare presented clinical guidelines/best practices with the participant's current practice and identify strengths or gaps.
- ◆ Analyze new research and science to develop practical applications for treatment or further research.
- ◆ Explain recent or upcoming policy changes and identify implications or areas for provider involvement.
- ◆ Create a network of professionals or a set of resources that can be used to support the participant's practice

Audience Q&A

- ◆ There will be time for audience Q&A during lunch and at the end of the day
- ◆ Submit your questions using the Q&A feature in the ASAM Annual 2022 conference app
- ◆ This is also where you can download slides, read bios, and complete session evaluations
- ◆ Instructions to download the app can be found on pg 4 of the program and on the back of your badge

ASAM
THE PAIN & ADDICTION
Common Threads Course XXIV

Thursday, April 13, 2023
8:00 am – 5:30 pm ET

Disclosure Information

Joseph Green

No Disclosures

Joseph Green is a professional storyteller, award-winning spoken word artist, educator, narrative disruptor, and person in sustained recovery. He advocates for and inspires those overcoming the disease of substance-use disorder through his keynote speeches and workshops. As Chief Executive Officer of LMSvoice, an educational consulting and production company, Joseph and his team create curriculum, innovative storytelling practices, and emotionally charged visual content to disrupt harmful narratives and restore humanity in all the spaces we occupy.

A person in long-term recovery, Joseph will share his lived experience through a short story and spoken word poem. He hopes that you will be inspired and seek to find the motivation from your own story and the stories of those you serve.

- ◆ Joseph Green is a professional storyteller, award-winning spoken word artist, educator, narrative disruptor, and person in sustained recovery. He advocates for and inspires those overcoming the disease of substance-use disorder through his keynote speeches and workshops, and has spoken at events organized by Google, the American Society of Addiction Medicine, Harvard Kennedy School's Recovery Advocacy Project Organizing Institute, and more. As Chief Executive Officer of LMSvoice, an educational consulting and production company, Joseph and his team create curriculum, innovative storytelling practices, and emotionally charged visual content to disrupt harmful narratives and restore humanity in all the spaces we occupy.
- ◆ A person in long-term recovery, Joseph will share his lived experience through a short story and spoken word poem. He hopes that you will be inspired and seek to find the motivation from your own story and the stories of those you serve.